INTRODUCER DUTIES FOR ORAL INTERPRETATION AND PREPARED SPEECH

You should have a list of students taking part in this section of the Awards.

Before starting:

1. Introduce yourself to the adjudicators.
- 2.
3. If necessary, check pronunciation of names.

At the start:

Call for quiet.

Introduce yourself: Good morning, my name is _____ from _____ SHS.

Do a 'roll call' to ensure that all students taking part in this session are present.

Remind everyone that they are not permitted to leave the room while a presentation is in progress and ask that all mobile phones are turned off.

(PAUSE TO ALLOW PHONES TO BE TURNED OFF)

Introduce the adjudicators

Kim Angus and Carole Dhu

Advise the students that a warning bell will be rung at (See below) and a final bell at (See below).

Oral Interpretation

Warning Bell	Final Bell
2.5 minutes	3 minutes

Prepared Speech

Warning Bell	Final Bell
4 minutes	5 minutes

The first entrant for this session is _____ from _____ (Read from the list supplied)

At the conclusion of each presentation thank the presenter and allow a few moments for the adjudicators to finish their assessment and to write comments. When they indicate that they are ready, proceed:

I now welcome _____ from _____ school.

At the end:

1. Declare the session ended, thank everyone
2. Return your file to the reception desk immediately so that it can be collected for the next session.

TIMEKEEPER DUTIES

You should have a:

1. list of students taking part in this section of the Awards.
2. bell
3. stopwatch

Before starting:

Introduce yourself to the adjudicators.

Procedure:

1. Time the presentation of each student, giving a warning bell when appropriate (see below) and sounding a final bell at the appropriate time for the presentation you are timing (see below)
2. Write the time of each student's speech beside his/her name on the form. (Times may be required by the adjudicators in the case of a tie).

Awards

	Warning Bell	Final Bell
